Dear :

This is in response to your request dated May 15, 2013, as supplemented by correspondence dated November 19, 2013, in which you request, through your authorized representative, a waiver of the 60-day rollover requirement contained in section 408(d)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code (the "Code").

The following facts and representations have been submitted under penalty of perjury in support of the ruling requested.

Taxpayer A represents that he received a total distribution equal to Amount 1 from IRA B, which was maintained by Financial Institution E. Taxpayer A asserts that his failure to accomplish a partial rollover of Amount 3 (Amount 1 less Amount 2) within the 60-day period prescribed by 408(d)(3)(A) was due to a mistake made by Tax Advisor H.

In late September or early October of 2012, Taxpayer A contacted Tax Advisor H, a Certified Public Accountant, to discuss the tax consequences of terminating IRA B, an IRA annuity with Financial Institution E. Tax Advisor H was out of town without access to Taxpayer A's files. Incorrectly believing that IRA B was a non-IRA annuity and that Taxpayer A had basis in the majority of the funds in the annuity, Tax Advisor H confirmed with Taxpayer A that a distribution from IRA B would not result in any adverse financial consequences. On October 9, 2012, Amount 1, less a transaction fee, was wired to Financial Institution F and placed in non-IRA Account C. On October 15, 2012, Taxpayer A again spoke with Tax Advisor H who advised him to establish an account with Financial Institution G. Tax Advisor H contacted Financial Institution G to explain Taxpayer A's financial situation but did not tell Financial Institution G that the distribution was from an IRA. On October 19, 2012, within 60 days of the distribution from IRA B, Taxpayer A established brokerage Account D with Amount 1, less Amount 2, which Taxpayer A needed for living expenses.

On February 4, 2013, when Tax Advisor H was preparing Taxpayer A's 2012 federal Income Tax Return and reviewing the Form 1099-R for that year, she discovered her mistake and realized that the distribution of Amount 1 was from an IRA annuity. Taxpayer A submitted a letter from Tax Advisor H supporting the above representations.

Based on the above facts and representations, Taxpayer A requests that the Service waive the 60-day rollover requirement with respect to the distribution of Amount 1 from IRA B.

Section 408(d)(1) of the Code provides that, except as otherwise provided in section 408(d), any amount paid or distributed out of an IRA shall be included in gross income by the payee or distributee, as the case may be, in the manner provided under section 72.

Section 408(d)(3) of the Code defines, and provides the rules applicable to IRA rollovers.

Section 408(d)(3)(A) of the Code provides that section 408(d)(1) does not apply to any amount paid or distributed out of an IRA to the individual for whose benefit the IRA is maintained if:

(i) the entire amount received (including money or any other property) is paid into an IRA for the benefit of such individual not later than the 60th day after the day on which the individual receives the payment or distribution; or

(ii) the entire amount received (including money and any other property) is paid into an eligible retirement plan (other than an IRA) for the benefit of such individual not later than the 60th day after the date on which the payment or distribution is received, except that the maximum amount which may be paid into such plan may not exceed the portion of the amount received which is includible in gross income (determined without regard to section 408(d)(3)).

Section 408(d)(3)(B) of the Code provides that section 408(d)(3) does not apply to any amount described in section 408(d)(3)(A)(i) received by an individual from an IRA if at any time during the 1-year period ending on the day of such receipt such individual received any other amount described in section 408(d)(3)(A)(i) from an IRA which was not includible in gross income because of the application of section 408(d)(3).

Section 408(d)(3)(D) of the Code provides a similar 60-day rollover period for partial rollovers.

Section 408(d)(3)(E) of the Code provides that the rollover provisions of section 408(d) do not apply to any amount required to be distributed under section 408(a)(6).

Section 408(d)(3)(I) of the Code provides that the Secretary of the Treasury may waive the 60-day requirement under sections 408(d)(3)(A) and 408(d)(3)(D) where the failure to waive such requirement would be against equity or good conscience, including casualty, disaster, or other events beyond the reasonable control of the individual subject to such requirement. Only distributions that occurred after December 31, 2001, are eligible for the waiver under section 408(d)(3)(I).

Rev. Proc. 2003-16, 2003-4 I.R.B. 359 (January 27, 2003), provides that in determining whether to grant a waiver of the 60-day rollover requirement pursuant to section 408(d)(3)(I) of the Code, the Service will consider all relevant facts and circumstances, including: (1) errors committed by a financial institution; (2) inability to complete a rollover due to death, disability, hospitalization, incarceration, restrictions imposed by a foreign country or postal error; (3) the use of the amount distributed (for example, in the case of payment by check, whether the check was cashed); and (4) the time elapsed since the distribution occurred.

The information and documentation provided by Taxpayer A are consistent with his assertion that the failure to accomplish a rollover of Amount 3 within the 60-day period prescribed by section 408(d)(3)(A) of the Code was due to Tax Advisor H's mistaken belief that the distribution from IRA B was from a non-IRA annuity.

Therefore, pursuant to section 408(d)(3)(I) of the Code, the Service hereby waives the 60-day rollover requirement with respect to the distribution of Amount 3 from IRA B. Taxpayer A is granted a period of 60 days from the issuance of this ruling letter to contribute Amount 3 into a rollover IRA account. Provided all other requirements of section 408(d)(3), except the 60-day requirement, are met with respect to such contribution, such contribution will be considered a rollover contribution within the meaning of section 408(d)(3).

This ruling does not authorize the rollover of amounts that are required to be distributed by section 401(a)(9) of the Code.

No opinion is expressed as to the tax treatment of the transaction described herein under the provisions of any other section of either the Code or regulations which may be applicable thereto.

This letter is directed only to the taxpayer who requested it. Section 6110(k)(3) of the Code provides that it may not be used or cited as precedent.

Pursuant to a power of attorney on file with this office, a copy of this letter ruling is being sent to your authorized representative.

If you wish to inquire about this ruling, please contact

Sincerely yours,
